

AdVIC is a registered charity (CHY16399) established by families of homicide victims to be advocates for the Victims of Homicide (murder, manslaughter and death by violent crime)

AdVIC has designed a specific training module for
Counselling Family members
Bereaved by Homicide

(Second series of workshops)

The workshops will be led by leading experts in their field and will cover the theory and practice of dealing with the complexities of a death by homicide focusing on the following areas:

Homicide & Family System – complicated Grief

Skills in working with clients affected by the trauma of Homicide

Children Bereaved by Homicide

Adolescents and the impact of Trauma

Role of the Gardai /Media

Homicide and the Law

Role of the State Pathologist and the DPP

The modules are aimed at accredited counsellors and accredited counsellors experienced in working with children.

(Counsellors who complete the training modules may be included on a national database used for referral of families of Homicide victims)

Places are limited — Certificate of Attendance on completion of the 8 workshops

COST: 120 per day , including light lunch for total of 8 Saturdays
(one per month except July and August) running from March 7th. to December 5th. 2009

VENUE: St Ciaran's College, Waterford Road, Kilkenny

Closing date for receipt of application: January 23rd. 2009
(Participants will be selected by interview)

For further information or an application form please contact:

Noeleen Lee: 01-4580545 Email: noeleenlee@eircom.net or Jean Casey O'Kelly: 042-9372047 Email: jeancasey@eircom.net